

Ready to Go

A look at the key teachings of Jesus in the upper room

Chapters 13-17 of John's gospel takes place in the Upper Room. The Last Supper of the Savior with His disciples provides Him the opportunity to shape their thinking about the meaning of His coming death through His words and by His example.

The underlying theme of these chapters is _____.

The purpose is to prepare His disciples for His _____.

Jesus is preparing them for the shock of His death and departure back to the Father. He tells them that death is not a;

_____ - _____ . He tells them that He must _____ the way.

We can have _____ and _____ in this life
when we _____ the _____ of Jesus.

"No one can give us the love we are starved for. We need someone to love us who doesn't need us-someone who can love us unconditionally." -Timothy Keller

The truth of this love emerges around four questions by the disciples that lead to four assurances:

- Where are you _____?

Assurance #1: _____.

True love _____ love. It is the only kind of _____ that makes more of itself as it _____.

- How can we _____ the _____?

Assurance #2: _____.

- Where is the _____?

Assurance #3: _____.

- Why _____ Lord?

Assurance #4: _____.